

ANOTHER DEAD HEAT.

CLOSE FINISHING AT MORRIS PARK.

A STIRLING STRUGGLE BETWEEN DR. HASBROCK AND STONELL.

There were no earthquakes or cyclones at Morris Park yesterday, no great upheavals of sentiment or excitement. One stirring race and five rather uninteresting ones were seen. The New-Rochelle Handicap resulted in a stubborn and long drawn-out struggle between Dr. Hasbrock and Stonell. Dr. Hasbrock won in the last two or three strides. He did it in a very close finish. In the history of the track, it was one of the most exciting races of the year. The time was extremely fast (1:20 1/4) when the weights carried are taken into account. Dr. Hasbrock had 127 pounds, and Stonell 125. St. Florian, with 117, was unable to keep pace with these wonderful sprinters.

Cheapeake and Adair made a dead heat in the second race. This meeting at Morris Park has broken all records of close finishes. It is charged by some humorists that the judges are in league with the handicapper. But, seriously, Mr. Voshburgh's handicaps have resulted in some remarkable contests.

Descriptions of all the races are given in the details which follow. The day was agreeable and the attendance satisfactory.

It has been arranged that the American Derby candidates shall have an opportunity to meet each other at Morris Park on next Wednesday, 11 1/2 miles, 120 pounds each, for a purse of $1,000. Mr. Dwyer has agreed to start Don Alonso, the Messrs. Morris will start Rainbow, and Dr. G. L. Knapp will start G. W. Johnson. It is possible that Mr. Keene will send to the post St. Leonard or Chiswick. The entries will close this evening. The race ought to be one of the most important of the season. It will give the American Derby. It is strongly hoped that Adair and Dwyer will start Ramapo, and that Mr. Keene will decide to start one of his colts.

All of the high-class races in this country ought to follow the example of Morris Park and have fields free to people who enjoy racing, but who cannot afford to pay for admission at the regular gates. The principal races in England have been free fields, and they are patronized by tens of thousands of people who could not see the sport if it were not for the free fields. The free field at Morris Park has always been one of the most popular features connected with that picturesque track. It is the only place in the country where the French pools can be made, and this form of betting is extremely popular. The tickets cost $2 each, and a good deal of money from the other parts of the track finds its way into the pockets of the spectators in the course of the afternoon. There is no free field at Sheepshead Bay. Just before L. W. Jerome died a movement was made to establish such a field. But after he died the matter was dropped and was soon forgotten. When the gates of Morris Park are closed the only place where people could see the sport is at the post-holes in New Jersey, where they make the sport a race and where they make the sport a race and where they make the sport a race.

SHARP STRUGGLE WITH PITTSBURGH.

THE BROOKLYN TEAM ALSO DEFEATS THE ST. LOUIS PLAYERS.

Another superbly played game of baseball was witnessed by 4,000 happy baseball enthusiasts at the Polo grounds yesterday. The contest was the final one of the present series between the New-York and Pittsburgh teams, and as each team had won a game yesterday's result was a matter of great interest to the fans.

The field for the Great Eclipse Stakes at Morris Park, with the guaranteed value of $20,000, of which $17,000 will go to the first horse, $2,000 to the second and $1,000 to the third, will not be so large as in some former years, but it will have plenty of quality and class in it.

William Leland, who trains Domino for James R. Keene and his son, Foxhall Keene, says that Domino is the best race horse he ever trained, and he is inclined to back him with Domino, that black wonder and whitened of two-years-old. In Domino and Domino Domino will meet two colts of splendid mettle, courage and dash.

It has been arranged that the American Derby candidates shall have an opportunity to meet each other at Morris Park on next Wednesday, 11 1/2 miles, 120 pounds each, for a purse of $1,000.
